NEW! Storytelling, Creative Writing & More: Mini Bridges

The Institute of the Arts is a recognized trained site for the national Neighborhood Bridges Program. Traditional “Bridges” is infused into the school classroom meeting weekly with the teaching artist and classroom teacher. In “Mini-Bridges” we will focus on a genre of stories. Students will use creative writing, storytelling and creative drama to develop their abilities to write, speak, and think clearly; improve their achievement in reading and writing; and recognize their capacity to become storytellers of their own lives.

SL53 July 13-17 Pre-Teen 9:00 - 11:30AM $135 ($125 members)

SD98 Music, Dance, Video

Students will work to their own level in this intensive dance workshop. From the basics to enhance technique to creating and performing your own original choreography, many facets of dance will be explored. The last day of the workshop we will record our efforts and hold a “screening” for friends and family.
